

East of England Regional Meeting of Inter Faith Groups
Organised by
The Woolf Institute, the Cambridge Interfaith Programme
and the East of England Faiths Agency
Working In Partnership

Venue – The Faculty of Divinity, Cambridge
Tuesday October 22nd 2024, 10:00 am till 2:00 pm

Schedule

- 10:00 am Refreshments and Registration
- 10:15 am Welcome
Leo Taylor, Public Engagement Coordinator, Woolf Institute
- 10:20 am Introduction to the day by the Chair
Dr Iona Hine, Programme Manager (Partnerships & Engagement)
Cambridge Interfaith Programme
- 10:30 am Who are we and why are we here?!
Delegates introduce themselves and their groups.
- 11:15 am Re-invigorating Inter Faith
Some of our groups seem ‘tired’ and need to attract younger people!
- 12:00 noon Proposal – that the Woolf, CIP and EEFA in partnership provide a network and run occasional regional meeting under the EEFA Umbrella.
- 12:00 pm Lunch break and time for mingling
Delegates are requested to bring their own lunch box. Drinks will be provided.
- 12:45 pm Proposals for next steps
- 2:00 pm Depart

If your group has produced anything (a programme, a book, a service) which you want to share with everyone, please bring it along and put it on display.

The Cambridge Interfaith Programme is housed within the Faculty of Divinity, on the University of Cambridge’s Sidgwick Site, off West Road, Cambridge.

The best postcode for navigation is CB3 9DP. A map and some detailed guidance for those arriving by public transport (recommended), by car or on foot is available on the CIP website: www.interfaith.cam.ac.uk/contact/how-find-us

NB On site parking is restricted to official visitors & those with university permits. To request temporary parking permission (e.g., in case of disability), please contact cip@divinity.cam.ac.uk by midday on 17 October.

To book a place, send an email giving your full name, your name as you would like it to appear on a badge, name of organisation or group, contact email and telephone number to conf.bookings@eefa.info.

If possible, groups are recommended to send two representatives.

Event organised by Leo Taylor, Public Engagement Coordinator, Woolf Institute; Iona Hine, Programme Manager (Partnerships & Engagement), Cambridge Interfaith Programme, Divinity Faculty, University of Cambridge; and David Capey, Honorary Executive Officer of EEFA.